

2008-2009
Miss Utah Job's Daughter Pageant

Dear Utah Job's Daughters,

It is time to start thinking about the Miss Utah Job's Daughter Pageant!! This year we are encouraging ALL eligible daughters to try out. It is fun; you learn a lot and meet great people!

We will again be continuing with the all in one-day pageant and competition. It will be held on Saturday, September 27, 2008 at the Salt Lake Masonic Temple beginning at 8:30 A.M. We will begin the pageant with the usual preliminary competition, which includes a written test, personal interview, a ritual recitation, extemporaneous speaking and robe judging. The contestants will then have lunch together with our current MUJD and MUC. After a break for a few hours in the afternoon, we will return to the Salt Lake Masonic Temple for the banquet, final pageant and crowning of the 2008-2009 Miss Utah Job's Daughter, Miss Utah Congeniality.

Eligibility

Any Job's Daughter, in good standing in her Bethel, who is not yet twenty (20) years old as of the Utah Pageant, September 27, 2008, and who will be at least sixteen (16) years old by the 2009 Miss International Pageant (August 6, 2009) in Richmond, Virginia.

Written Test

The written test will cover Bylaws, Ritual and Book of Ceremonies. We suggest that you study the following:

Bylaws: Bethel Constitution, Bethel Bylaws, SI-11, Landmarks, Miss IJD Pageant and the Utah R&R including the MUJD Pageant.

Book of Ceremonies: Majority Degree and Installation

The IOJD Knowledge Course available from the Supreme Office may be helpful in studying for the test. You can contact the Supreme Office at (402) 592-7987.

Ritual Recitation

Contestants this year will need to learn both First and Third Messengers parts. Contestants will draw for the part they will perform from the hat. Contestants will need to recite the Station and Duties (charge) as well as the Initiation part.

- ❖ Station and Duties (charge) First Messenger - ritual page 54

Entry Forms and Fees

Entry forms must be filled out with accompanying information, an entry fee and postmarked by Monday, September 1, 2008. The entry fee for this year's competition will be $25.00. This fee will help us offset the cost of the contestant luncheon and the banquet. All competitors will receive a complimentary lunch and banquet ticket.
